PROJECTS

What's In My Pantry   Frontend Developer
Repo: https://github.com/gdickey273/whats-in-the-pantry/projects/1
Deployed: https://gdickey273.github.io/whats-in-the-pantry/

- An application created to build recipes for ingredients found in one's pantry.
- The application summarizes ingredients needed for recipes as well as a link to Amazon for online shopping. Its displays the cost, recipe link for instructions and the recipe health labels. My goal was to help build a website with HTML5 and style it using CSS and SASS.
- The technologies used were two server-side APIs (Spoonacular and Edamam) HTML5, CSS, SASS, and JavaScript
